

2008 MUSIC & MEDIA SHOW

Rhythmhound Productions proudly presents the 2008 Music & Media Show, May 17 and 18 at the Palmer Events Center in Austin, Texas. This event brings together pop culture fans, dealers, independent entertainment companies, musicians and artists. The show also blends old and new technologies, offering online formats, DVDs, CDs and LPs.

Artists, entertainment companies and the general public can explore a world of entertainment with an emphasis on Texas, as regional record companies showcase their releases and artists. Music fans are welcome to attend and join participants from across Texas, the United States and the world in learning about the many ways to enjoy and expand their favorite music and media collections.

The Rhythmhound Music & Media Show offers bands and musicians a great opportunity to gain exposure. Artists and labels will have the chance to meet Web-savvy professionals who can get their music and visual media onto the Internet. Music and media dealers from around the country will be on hand with old and new favorites that will enhance any collector's library. Local artisans and vendors with a flair for musical and visual productions will also offer their wares.

We at Rhythmhound Productions are indebted to our four-legged companions for giving us a rock-steady, tail-wagging beat to by which to live our lives. We are returning the favor by partnering with Town Lake Animal Shelter. Companion animals available for adoption will welcome visitors to the Rhythmhound Music & Media Show. Of course, a portion of the proceeds will go to our friends at Town Lake and the ASPCA.
